

Each year the WCC recognizes Department of Natural Resources staff that have done an outstanding job of advancing Wisconsin's conservation and natural resource management initiative, for their dedication and exemplary work in the natural resources arena. These recipients are chosen by the WCC Executive Committee based on the Congress' knowledge of their work along with nominations from delegates, citizens, or their co-workers/supervisors.

- ☐ 2015 Fisheries Biologist/Technician of the Year
- ☐ 2015 Wildlife Biologist/Technician of the Year
- ☐ 2015 Law Enforcement Officer of the Year

Please describe the career achievements and distinctions of your nominee; their level of involvement with the public through education, outreach, or other programs; involvement with or participation in conservation groups; the significance of their work to the natural resources and people of Wisconsin; and why you feel this nominee is deserving of this award. Please attach additional sheets if necessary.
